As the institution is not a new one, such a levy need not perhaps be legalised. The system of levying a fee for Covenants entered into before is prevalent in the temples eg. Vengangud. This is only a contribution. If the Board is willing to surrender the right to his consent may be stamped & the question considered thereafter. The Dist Adv Cuddapah levy similar cess, levy on shops &c. but they have left to do with the administrative affairs of temples.

GI. No.....

In enclosing herein report No.365 dated the 9th Febry. 1929 from the Amildar, Malur Taluk, I have the honour to state that the Government in their order No.L.5964-L.B. 124-21-4 dated the 11th April 1922 sanctioning the Jatra at Dadinaikandoddi, Malur Taluk prohibited the levy of fees on cocoanuts offerred to the deity.

2. On enquiry, it is learnt that every cocoanut offerred to the Samadhi of Venkatagiriyappa is accompanied by three pies each and that the collections are at present appropriated by the Archak. This practice is in vogue in consenance with the practice in several other places of jatra in the District.

3. The Board in their meeting held on the 28th ultimo considered the question and have resolved to legalise the existing practice and to utilise the collections towards the temple recently constructed near the Samadhi- Copy of their resolution is enclosed.

4. I recommend that sanction may be accorded to the resolution of the Board.

I have the honour to be,
